Market Design and Medical Marketplaces

Thursday, September 17
4:00-5:00pm | Prem Sahai Auditorium (1110 MERF)

Alvin Roth, PhD
• 2012 Nobel Memorial Prize in Economics
• Craig and Susan McCaw Professor of Economics, Stanford University
  • Gund Professor of Economics and Business Administration Emeritus, Harvard University

In addition to other medical and non-medical "matching markets", Dr. Roth was instrumental in designing the "matching market" better known as the resident match.

The Ida Cordelia Beam Lecture, "Who Gets What and Why - Market Design and Marketplaces," is scheduled for Friday, September 18, 3:00-4:00 pm in the Pappajohn Business Building, Room S401.
